July Minutes

Lorna Johnson, Secretary

Opening and Introductions:

The meeting was opened at 6:12pm by President Cindy with vice chair Janet, treasurer Joyce B., editor Renee and secretary Lorna present. There were 28 members present and two guests.

Cindy called for acceptance of the June minutes. Sara S. made a motion to approve the minutes as written, Deena seconded and motion passed.

Treasurer's Report:

Joyce B. reported there has been no activity and current balance is $4,140.34.

Old Business:

- Cindy showed potholders that she made for the grasshopper festival and reminded everyone that if they had potholders to donate they can drop them off at her store and she would deliver them. Sally handed in two potholders.
- Cindy reminded everyone about the challenge project.
- There was discussion about the block of the month that will begin next month by Stephanie. The group decided that they would like to make one block to keep and not do the lottery.
- Kathy H. brought raffle tickets for anyone who wants to get some.
- Joyce B. set out the sign-up sheets for the fair.
- Kathy H. said that the 4-H quilt is coming along and that Gabby was able to use Shawna's long arm to quilt her project and she did a great job.

New Business:

- Cindy called for volunteers to be on the nomination committee for up-coming elections. Dianne, Kathy H. and Leslie volunteered. Anyone interested in running for an office may contact one of these members.

Drawing for Charm: Rachel won the charm this month.

Committee Reports: No reports this month.

Good of the Order:

- Dianne gave a report about the progress of the Rail Corridor.
- Cathy K. gave a report about her quilt show and thanked everyone for attending. She also said that she has given out 110 patterns/kits of the stores Row by Row and to people as far away as Texas.

Help Me:

Phyllis is working on a baby quilt of flannel and regular cotton fabrics that are pre-washed so she wanted to know if she would need to prewash the batting. Members said there is no need to.

Show and Tell: There was no Show & Tell at this meeting.

Refreshments:

Christmas in July pot luck dinner was eaten before the meeting began and was, as usual, delicious.

Program:

Sara S. gave the rules for the white elephant gift exchange of fabrics. The fabric that each member takes home is to be used to make a gift to be brought back to the December Christmas party for the gift exchange. Anyone not participating in this July exchange can make a present to bring to the December meeting for the exchange. Everyone had a good time and the member with the most times of being stolen from was Joyce B.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

Scraps of Wisdom

by Nancy Morris

I received an email from Renee today reminding me that she is putting out our newsletter this week. It woke me up to the fact that it is already the 2nd of August. My, this summer is certainly sailing by. And it has been a busy one for me and not in a quilting sense either.

I have been through two reunions already, one in June with Art's siblings in Leavenworth and another in July with my siblings and their families. Lots of work and lots of fun. The past couple of weeks I have been working with an elder brother getting him lined up with the VA medical people where he has had to have a foot removed. Not a fun thing to have happen and dealing with the VA can be an ordeal. At the same time I am crippling around with gout in my left big toe. That sounds kind of trivial, but believe me, when your foot is swollen to where you cannot walk on it, it's no laughing matter. Better now, though. I have all the fabrics for my color challenge for the fair, and I know what pattern I want to use, but so far I have not sat down and started it. In fact, I made a trip to Omak in June looking for the just the right colors to go with some I already had. I just have to get myself lined out with the project. Probably if I could just get it started, I might just get it finished. It is simple, but you have to start.

I have been away from the sewing machine for a couple of months now. Perhaps as my foot is getting better I will be inspired to start it. My sister, Maureen, is coming for another reunion (class this time) in a couple of weeks. If I have it cut out, perhaps she will push me to get at it. She has a tendency to do that sort of thing. "Come on, Nan," she'll chide me. "Just do a few minutes here and there. The first thing you know it will be done". We'll see. It won't be the first challenge that I have missed.

Like an old German friend used to say to me, "the hurrier I go, the behinder I get". I am beginning to fully understand what he was talking about. See you at the fair.
